

NOT WIKEL TO PICK MONTANA SENATOR

Democratic Candidate Leads, But Amalgamated Men Are Opposed.

FIGHT PREDICTED IN ASSEMBLY CHAMBER

Several Republicans Say They Will Desert Carter If Any Democratic Vote for Him.

By ROBERT W. WOOLEY.

HELENA, Feb. 12.—Montana's Senatorial situation has reached a stage where anything may happen, but where no election seems likely to be the final outcome.

T. J. Walsh, for whom the Democrats declared at the polls, still maintains a decided lead among the legislators of his own party, and states positively that he has no idea of withdrawing in favor of anyone else. Pressure of all sorts has been brought to bear on him, but it is invariably traced to the Amalgamated Copper Company, which has a number of representatives on the scene working like beavers, with the sole object of drawing Walsh.

This company lets it be known freely that it considers defeat in this election would be most disastrous. So strenuously has it spread the propaganda of corporation control in politics, protesting the while that it longs to retire from the scene, working like beavers, with the sole object of drawing Walsh.

Investigation in other parts of the State, however, shows feeling against the Amalgamated among the people is very great. In Butte and Silver Bow, for instance, which have eleven representatives in the legislature, and where the Amalgamated is absolutely supreme, there is resentment among the voters against the manner in which this giant concern has prevented its representatives from entering a caucus to agree upon a Democratic candidate.

Refuse to Sign Caucus Call.

The Democratic State committee held a meeting in this city last week and adopted a resolution strongly urging the Democratic legislators to enter a caucus. Holding the view, ultimately, of holding a caucus and endorsing a candidate, the committee has been in circulation, but the Amalgamated's representatives declined to sign it, though it was not to become effective until fifty-one names had been secured. They openly declare that the action of the State committee is a matter of indifference to them, and that under no circumstances will they support Walsh. The only complaint they have against him, by the way, is that he has persistently refused to accept a retainer as an attorney, and an effort to control him otherwise has been without avail.

"Those Democrats who decline to enter a caucus come to me and ask me to withdraw in the interest of the party," said Mr. Walsh to the writer today. "If I did I would be unfaithful to the State. These legislators and the Amalgamated seem to consider that the party is to be divided into a virtue, and that in trying to obey it I am guilty of a crime. Their threats have no terror for me; and, if they can afford to deny me the right to represent the people in the United States Senate, I will not let them decide who is to blame."

Five Democrats to Vote for Carter.

What the Amalgamated is really trying to do is to re-elect Thomas H. Carter. The latter's friends have declared loudly that he will not return to Washington with the aid of Democratic votes, but such talk is regarded by those who are in a position to know as a joke. Five Democrats, two of whom are from Silver Bow county and two from Lewis and Clark county, of which Helena is the county seat, have agreed to go over to Carter, and only an opportune moment is awaited for consummation of the deal. The Republicans would like to see the vote for Carter split, and they are doing their utmost to prevent it. The Democrats have decided that the minute a Democratic vote is cast they will march out of the Assembly Chamber, dragging with them any members of their party who may be present, and preserve a quorum. This would be likely to cause a free fight, but a little thing like that doesn't count in Montana.

House May Not Receive Senate.

There is not going to be a repetition of the Clark scandal of twelve years and ten years ago, if these men can help it. The Senate is at arm's length of both the house and senate are Democrats, and, of course, they will refuse to arrest the bolting legislators.

Another plan which may be resorted to is for the house to refuse to receive the senate in the morning. The day it becomes evident that any coup is to be attempted.

The speech of Senator Root, of New York, in the Lorimer case at Washington last week made a profound impression in Helena. Democrats flatly declare that charges and an investigation would follow a Republican's election, and the fight would be carried to Washington. Many letters and telegrams have been received by the Democratic members from prominent Democrats in other States, urging them to stand by their guns.

William Watmough Grier Gets All Father's Estate

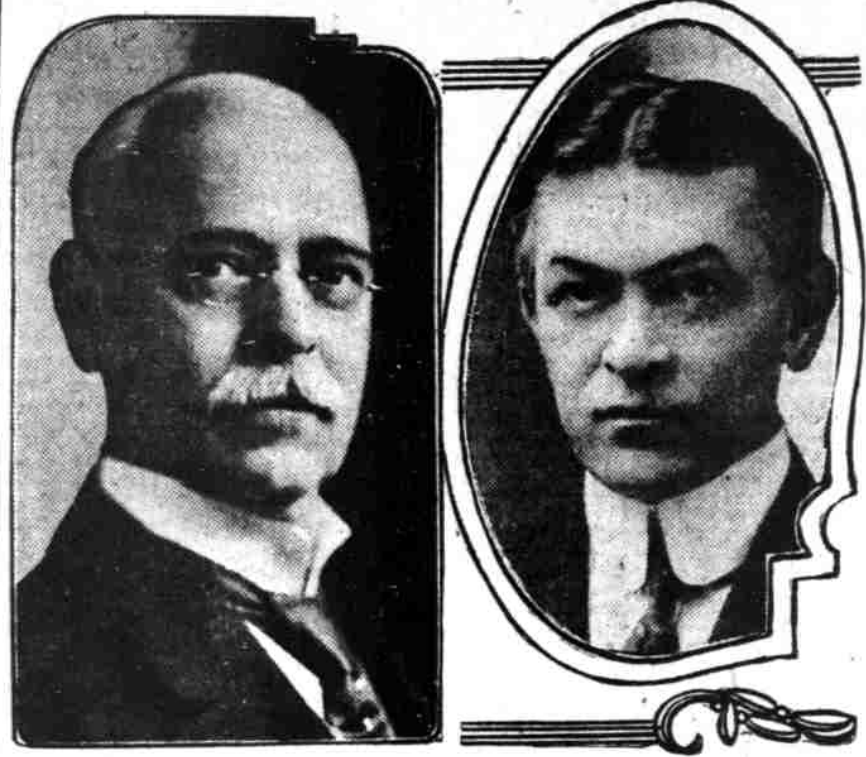

The will of former Surgeon General William Grier, U. S. N., retired, who died January 11 last, has been filed in the Probate Court. It leaves the entire estate to the son, William Watmough Grier, who since has passed the age of twenty-one, mentions in the codicil as the time when the trusteeship should cease and the heir should enjoy his rights as beneficiary.

It is understood that the will and papers will not be probated. The papers were found in a safe deposit box, and were filed by the trust officer.

Kaiserin Seriously Ill.

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—The Kaiserin is reported to be more seriously ill than the Kaiser, who has been suffering from a cold for some days. A court ball and several other court functions, which were announced today, have been indefinitely postponed.

MRS. TAFT TO SEE DISPLAY OF STYLES

National Show At the Arlington to Be Opened Tomorrow Afternoon.

An inspection by Mrs. William H. Taft and Miss Helen Taft, of the national style show, will be made this evening in the Arlington Hotel. After the inspection by Mrs. Taft and her daughter, together with such friends as they desire to have accompany them, the show will be opened for the inspection of the newspaper representatives and tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock it will be opened to the general public.

Every day for the remainder of the week, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:30 o'clock in the evening, the show will be opened for inspection.

The exhibit this year contains many of the unique costumes worn in the early days, as well as the most modern dresses and uniforms of the present day. It is expected that the harem skirt will prove the sensation of the present show.

Besides displays of civilian dress, uniforms worn in military life will be on exhibit, the War Department having had a unique exhibit arranged. Many of the most important dealers in fashionable dress in all parts of the United States, have sent exhibits to Washington.

Those in charge of the style show have arranged for concerts by an augmented orchestra each afternoon and evening. It has been decided that Wednesday will be army-navy night; Thursday, society night; Friday, Congressional night; and Saturday, Board of Trade-Chamber of Commerce night.

Committee Is Given An Informal Hearing

Senator Smoot, chairman of the Senate Committee on Printing, gave an informal hearing yesterday to members of the special committee of the Chamber of Commerce, appointed to investigate the merits of the Smoot bill and the contentions of the plate printers who oppose it. This is the bill providing for the use of power presses to replace hand work now done by plate printers in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

The Chamber of Commerce committee consisted of Messrs. Clagett, Prince, Judd, and Gilmore. The discussion was chiefly by Senator Smoot, Director Ralph, of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, and George P. Foster, chairman of the executive committee of the Plate Printers' Union, and employed in the bureau.

Senator Smoot defended the bill on grounds of economy, and Mr. Foster contended the deterioration in the quality of the printing of bills by power presses would make it much easier to counterfeit them.

The special committee hopes to submit a report to the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening.

Prisoner Is Believed To Be "Laprobe Thief"

In the arrest of Perry Alcom, colored, nineteen years of age, the police of the Tenth precinct think they have solved the series of petty thefts of laprobes and other articles from automobiles and trucks that have puzzled the department for several weeks.

Alcom was caught in a vacant house at 1839 California street northwest by Policeman McGregor. He had two stolen laprobes, one of which, the police say, he confesses to have stolen from an automobile at Eighteenth and V streets northwest several days ago. He says he doesn't remember where he got the other.

Eludes Arkansas Police After Sawing From Jail

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 12.—Charles H. Everette, alleged forger, who saved his way to liberty from the jail here yesterday, is still at large. He has plenty of money, the jailer says, for the day before his escape his wife gave him several hundred dollars. A Seattle officer had been here three weeks awaiting the outcome of an appeal on his application for habeas corpus writ. Several charges against Everett for alleged operations in the West have been made.

Negro Lynched.

EUFAULA, Ala., Feb. 12.—The body of Iver Peterson, a negro about eighteen years of age, was cut down this morning from the limb where the man was hanged last night. The body had been riddled with bullets by the lynchers.

Peterson was lynched because of an attempted assault upon Mrs. E. A. Hudson. He was found at his father's home at the rear of the residence of Representative Henry D. Clayton.

FRILL EXPLOITERS BOMBARD STUART

Gets All Kinds of Advice From All Kinds of People.

A. T. Stuart, superintendent of schools, has started a scrap book. It contains curious letters asking the tall manner of strange things he taught in the public schools.

"Not a day passes," said the superintendent, "that we are not bombarded by the exploiters of some frill. If we taught all these faddists what I teach we would not have room for reading, writing, and arithmetic at all."

Then the superintendent proceeded to display some late additions to the exhibit.

One is from a magazine asking that dancing form a fundamental part of the education of youth, and the crusaders against profanity want to make use of the school system to stamp out the special evil they are fighting.

Scarcely a week passes that the principal of the school head is not sought for some temperance campaign, anti-cigarette smoking taught from a biological standpoint, and one religious worker thinks the school children should know more about the teaching of manners and morals must come from the individual teacher, concluded the superintendent, "and we can't see our way clear to teach morals from a book. Neither can we entirely supplant the duties of the parents in bringing up their children. That is generally the answer that comprises a polite declination of the suggestions."

Policy As to China.

The name of American financiers has been persistently connected with the $50,000,000 loan of China. Secretary Knox is upon record as follows regarding this country's promised aid to the Chinese Empire along the line of currency reforms:

There are various important provisions in our commercial treaty of 1903 which evidence our interest in the nation of reforms which must result in benefit to the Chinese people. Among these are the engagements entered into by China to establish a uniform currency, to adopt reasonable mining regulations, to revise the penal code, and to establish a system of courts. The United States, on its part, has promised to lend its assistance to these reforms, and has given assurance that it will continue to do so.

All of which goes to show that a flood of American dollars will make their poverty felt, whenever American financial experts say the word, in the far East and in Latin America.

Bull and Dog Fight to Death; Master Injured

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Eben Groves is seriously injured as a result of trying to separate his English bull terrier and his Holstein bull in a fight. The bull and the dog fought to the death. The dog was valued at $750 and the bull at $1,500.

Burned to Death in Bed.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Feb. 12.—Mystery surrounds the origin of the fire which caused the death of Charles Fisher, a baker, at Bradley Beach last night. The father bed in which Fisher had been sleeping caught fire and he was found dead.

The woman confided to a friend that as soon as the children reached an understanding age and were not entirely dependent upon her she would die. She determined to end her life this morning, the outcome of an operation on her father-in-law. She telephoned to a friend that she had nothing but horror in her life. Then she drank carbolic acid.

TIGHTENING HOLD ON MONEY MARTS

Appointment of Shuster Said to Be Step Along "Dollar Diplomacy."

What means it that American financial experts are being called to the Far East and to Latin American countries to assist in the rehabilitation of the run-down financial systems of these foreign powers?

W. Morgan Shuster, of this city, has just been appointed treasurer general of the Persian empire. It's a long jump from America to Persia, a country whose interests have been covertly watched for years by England, Germany, and Russia.

Coming right down to the matter of close analysis, although the State Department is, of course, not officially concerned in the appointment of Mr. Shuster, there is a well-founded feeling that the Shuster appointment is but another step toward the policy of "dollar diplomacy," which has been censured and praised, of this Government.

It is just another instance wherein American financial methods, and, perhaps, American financiers, are to obtain a foothold in the marts of commerce and finance in the countries across the seas.

United States Forges Ahead.

The State Department recently suggested the names of five Americans competent to take up the task of reorganizing the Persian financial system, which evidently is in a bad way and in need of the American oxygen treatment. Mr. Shuster was finally selected. Germany, England, and Russia are temporarily out in the cold, financially, although it is a matter of common knowledge that these powers have been jealous, each of the others, so far as Persia is concerned. Persia is a sort of gateway to India, a British possession, and, as such, justifies a watchful eye on the part of all interested nations.

America today is aiding, directly or indirectly, in straightening out the financial troubles of Nicaragua. This Government, according to the viewpoint of the State Department, regards the rehabilitation of Nicaraguan finances as extremely desirable, from a general international standpoint.

Gives Aid to Venezuela.

This Government has not been unwilling to lend the aid of the expert assistance to struggling Venezuela. There is Honduras, in whose behalf a group of American bankers recently came forward with offers of advantageous terms.

Secretary of State Knox, using Honduras as a concrete example in a speech delivered on "the spirit and purpose of American diplomacy," declared:

"Believing that a strong Honduras would tend enormously toward a stable and prosperous Central America, this Government is heartily supporting the plan for its financial rehabilitation. If the arrangement made proves, upon the closest scrutiny, to be just and sound, and if the Government will be prepared, with the consent of the Senate, if a treaty is desirable, to give it such sanction as shall afford the bank the legitimate security for its investment by recognition of such relation as the government of Honduras may create between the payments due the lender and a proper portion of the customs revenue."

Policy As to China.

The name of American financiers has been persistently connected with the $50,000,000 loan of China. Secretary Knox is upon record as follows regarding this country's promised aid to the Chinese Empire along the line of currency reforms:

BOY SCOUTS PLAN DRILL AT WILLARD

Will Demonstrate for Benefit of Members of Advisory Committee.

While members of the advisory committee of the Boy Scouts of America are partaking of a 15-a-plate dinner in the room of the New Willard Hotel tomorrow night, they will be sitting near a bonfire, for it has been arranged for some of the young scouts of Washington to demonstrate the teachings of their national order during the progress of the banquet.

Besides building and lighting a bonfire with two matches, the scouts will show their adaptability in getting the necessities of life while out of doors by arranging traps and preparing food.

This, it is expected, will interest the influential men at the banquet table, a number of whom are millionaires, and will show what results the Boy Scout movement actually obtain.

Notables to Speak.

Following the banquet a number of addresses will be made by such speakers as Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson, Henry Wallace, editor of Wallace's Farmer, Des Moines; George S. Pratt, of the Pratt Institute, Brooklyn; Dan Beard, of New York, and B. L. Dulaney, of the Bristol (Tenn.) mill. A strong letter from Theodore Roosevelt has been received and will be read. C. H. Livingston, vice president of the American National Bank, will preside at the banquet. He, with James E. West, secretary of the Boy Scouts of America, will be in charge of the two days' session of the advisory council which opens tomorrow. It is expected that forty members of the council from all parts of the United States will be in attendance.

To Meet President.

At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon those in attendance will go in a body to the East Room of the White House, where President Taft, who is honorary president of the organization, will meet the delegates and deliver an address to them on the boy scout movement. The making of the President and the banquet at 7 o'clock will be the chief features of the first day's session.

Wednesday will be devoted largely to the discussion of business. At 10 o'clock in the morning there will be a discussion of needed legislation and changes that should be made in the Boy Scout laws. The morning session will close with the election of officers and committees.

At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a meeting of the scout masters and a conference of the scout masters and prospective leaders. All the meetings will be held at the Willard Hotel.

Her Name Is Unknown, Likewise Is Her Age

Who is the veteran teacher of the Washington public schools? In the natural course of events there is such a personage, but unless she chooses to make herself known her name and fame will rest under a bushel of reports concerning the ages of various public school teachers now in the hands of the Secretary of the Board of Education.

Nearly all the returns are in and unless there is later information on the subject she is more than seventy years old and has been in the service about fifty years.

Further information the school officials chafed at the desire to divulge on the ground that she is a woman. Secretary Harry Hine declined to risk telling the name and Superintendent of Schools A. T. Stuart cheerfully said he didn't know and added that he didn't think it would be gentlemanly for him to pronounce a suspicion that he does know, for he added, "She is a woman and I don't think she would like it."

The counting up of ages was asked for by Henry P. Blair and a report will be made to him at the next Board of Education meeting, on Wednesday. Names will not be used. They are all locked in the safe and the secretaries who are doing the counting are using a list on which the teachers are identified by numbers, and Secretary Hine keeps close watch on the key to these names.

Durand Sends Census Report Proofs to Nagel

Director Durand of the Census Bureau today submitted proofs of his report on the taking of the thirteenth decennial census, to Secretary Nagel for approval. The report, which will be made public soon, is voluminous and embraces the work done by the bureau in detail.

It is said the cost of operation and compilation of the present census has been less, despite heavy expenditures made for mechanical devices, than that of any previous decade.

Burglar Makes Haul From Clothing Store

J. W. Eiseman, proprietor of a clothing store at 315 Seventh street northwest, today reported to the police that his place of business had been entered some time between Saturday midnight and this morning.

When he opened the store this morning he found a back window had been pried open. Two raincoats, two dress suits, twenty-five yards of silk, and a number of neckties, collars, and shirts, men's suits and other articles stolen. Before leaving with his booty, the robber broke open the cash drawer and stole $3 in money. The amount of the missing articles will aggregate $150.

NOTABLE SPEAKERS FOR CLUB BANQUET

Nation, District, and Civic Bodies to Be Represented Next Monday.

The governments of the United States and of the District, and the business, labor, religious, philanthropic, and educational interests of Washington will be represented by speakers at the annual banquet of the Monday Evening Club at Rauscher's one week from tonight.

Senator George E. Chamberlain of Oregon will represent the United States, and Engineer Commissioner William V. Judson will represent the District. Other prominent men will represent the organizations concerned in the upbuilding of Washington.

The theme to be discussed in ten-minute speeches by the nine speakers is "Co-operation for Social and Civic Betterment." The speakers and their subjects follow:

"Business Organizations and Civic Welfare," Daniel J. Callahan, vice president Chamber of Commerce.
"Socialization of the Public School," Dr. Wilbur Preston Thirkield, president Howard University.
"Some Social Functions of the Daily Newspaper," John P. Davitt, manager Associated Press.
"The Church and Social Service," Dr. Samuel H. Woodrow, pastor First Congregational Church.
"The Social Significance of the Trade Union Movement," Arthur E. Holder, American Federation of Labor.
"The Keynote of Modern Philanthropy," H. H. Ufford, secretary Associated Charities.
"Washington, District of Columbia," Major W. V. Judson, U. S. A., Engineer Commissioner, D. C.
"The Nation and the Nation's City," Hon. George Earle Chamberlain, Senator from Oregon.
"The City, the Hope of Democracy," Frederic Clemens Howe.
Arrangements are being made for about 25 at the banquet, which will begin at 7 o'clock. William Knowles Cooper will be the toastmaster.

Funeral This Afternoon For William McCarter

The funeral of William McCarter, who died after a lingering illness, was held this afternoon at 2 p. m. from his late residence, 282 Georgia avenue.

The services were in charge of the G. A. R. and attended by the Royal Arcanum, of which the deceased was a member. Interment was in Glenwood Cemetery.

Mr. McCarter served through the civil war as a member of Company A, 11th Pennsylvania Volunteers. During the war he participated in twenty-six battles and skirmishes, among the most prominent being Gettysburg, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Spotsylvania, and the battle of the Wilderness. His regiment was included in the famous Meagher's Irish Brigade.

Arrangements for the past twenty-two years in the employ of the Government as a clerk in the Pension Office.

YOUR UPSET, SOUR, GASSY STOMACH IS RELIEVED IN A FEW MINUTES

Take a little Diapiesin now and your Stomach will feel fine in five minutes.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach. Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery at any drug store, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure almost any chronic case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other Stomach trouble.

LACK OF HORSES ALARMS OFFICERS

System of Breeding Is Recommended By Department Chief.

Army officers and Department of Agriculture experts are uneasy over the lack of proper horses for the country for use of the cavalry and artillery in case of war.

A comprehensive report on the subject has been published by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the War Department. It appears that there is much trouble in finding suitable horses for the army in time of peace to say nothing of the demands that would be made in case of war of any magnitude.

In this country now are about 23,000,000 horses. It would seem that out of this number there would be an ample number for the equipment of the cavalry and for artillery and other army uses in case of war, but in an article on breeding horses for the United States Army, prepared by Capt. Casper H. Conrad, of the Third Cavalry and published by the Department of Agriculture, doubt is expressed on the subject. The army type is said to be scarce and hard to obtain.

Captain Conrad recommends legislation by the States generally to prevent the breeding of unsound horses.

In 1908 the Government established the system of remount depots for the army. Under this system the Government buys the horse young, at 3 to 4 years old, and after breaking them issues them to the troops. This system has been found preferable to purchasing the animals when matured. But what the army officers want, and also the Department of Agriculture, is a system of Government supervision of the breeding of horses for the army. European countries have adopted this plan.

Chief George M. Rommel, of the Animal Husbandry Division of the Bureau of Animal Industry, has devised a plan whereby from 2,000 to 2,500 well-bred animals would be available for the army every year. This would about supply the demands in time of peace.

It is proposed to divide the country into four districts and to rear Morgans, thoroughbreds, standardbreds and saddlers. In time the best type would be discovered.

Crippen Estate Awarded To Wife's Half-Sister

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The estate of Dr. H. W. Crippen, the executed wife murderer, today was awarded to Mrs. Theresa Hunn, of Brooklyn, a half-sister of Mrs. Belle Elmore Crippen.
